October Brown Bag Session

Caring for Transgender Patients in Primary Care Settings

Featuring
Deirdre A. Shires, MSW, MPH, PhD
Assistant Professor
School of Social Work
Michigan State University

Join us for a discussion about primary care providers’ attitudes, confidence, and willingness to treat transgender patients, barriers that providers and staff face in treating this population, and a discussion of strategies for culturally competent and appropriate care.

Monday, October 9, 2016 | Noon to 1 p.m.
Sparrow Professional Building, 2nd Floor, Classroom D
1200 E. Michigan Avenue, Lansing, MI 48912
Bring your lunch. Dessert and beverages provided.

*Space is limited. Please reserve your seat by contacting the Center for Innovation and Research at 517.364.5730 or email sharon.baer@sparrow.org

Brown Bag sessions, held approximately once per month, are an opportunity to network, have discussions with others interested in similar topics, brainstorm innovative research ideas, and form new teams.

If you would be interested in leading a Brown Bag session in 2017, send an email to sharon.baer@sparrow.org with your topic of interest and preferred date/month. The topic should be relevant to faculty of both Michigan State University and Sparrow Health System.
